ORDER

21 CV 356 (VB)

On April 5, 2021, defendant filed (i) a motion to compel arbitration or, in the alternative, transfer this action to the District of Maryland (Doc. #21), and (ii) a motion to dismiss the complaint. (Doc. #22).¹

The Court will need to reach the arguments raised in the motion to dismiss only if it first denies the motion to compel arbitration or transfer. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE to refiling pending the Court's decision on the motion to compel arbitration or transfer.

Defendant's time to answer, move, or otherwise respond to the complaint is stayed pending further order of the Court.

The Clerk is instructed to terminate the motion to dismiss. (Doc. #22).

SO ORDERED:

Vincent L. Briccetti
United States District Judge

¹ Defense counsel did not explain why two separate sets of motion papers were filed, although the Court suspects this was done to circumvent the Court's page limitation for memoranda of law submitted in support of motions. See Individual Practices of Judge Vincent L. Briccetti, ¶ 2.C.
